RECORD BREAKERS IN MATCH TONIGHT

RUBBER PIN MARK

Research Shows That 3,870 Total of Local Quint Stands by Itself.

When the Martinsburg All-Stars. of Martinaburg, West Virginia, and Fannee..... George Isemann's Crescents, of this Gardner. city, clash tonight on the Grand Central Alleys, they will conclude a match which goes on record as the most notable ever participated in by either city from a standpoint of scores even though tonight's rolling should bring forth little above the ordinary.

Isemann's team established what is believed to be a national record for hubber-banded pins when the Martins-burgers were rolled on their home alleys last Friday. A total of 3,870 map-ies fell before the locals' attack, and so far as can be learned, this is 494 pins better than the previous record. Martinsburg Shines, Too.

Although the Washingtonians per formed in a sensational manner, their propents were not far behind them. finishing with a total of 3,586. This gives Isemann's team a margin of 221 to start tonight's five games. Total pins on the ten will decide the win Regulation A. C. B. A. parapherpalia will be used in the games at the Grand Central, which leaves litle probability that Martineburg will over-rome the advantage won by the lo-cales in the opening set. Rolling will begin at 7 o'clock.

ith a high score of 204, and appears to be in top form. Tuseday he averaged 120 for five games in a special match, paired with Tom Mayhew against Ray Chapin and Eddie Howser, and should the blond-topped expert do as well tonight he probably will set a record for high average in ten consecutive games rolled in com-netition, A. C. B. A. style.

Following the duckpinning the bowthe local team will be host.
